

May 12, 2010

Dear Coaches,

We are pleased to invite you to the first ever Saturday Night Lights cross-country meet on August 28th 2010. It will be held at Texas Bank Sports Complex in San Angelo, Tx and hosted by San Angelo Independent School District. The meet will begin at 7:30pm and be a rolling schedule. There will be stadium lights lighting the course throughout the race. Restrooms are available on site. Music will be playing around the starting line. T-shirts will be available for sale. We are trying to make this meet a great start to your season!

Please fill out and email or fax the letter (attn. Trista Box) of intent attached ASAP so we can make this the best meet possible.

We will send out more details by the beginning of August.

Thank you for your time,

Coach Trista Box
